Bankruptcy Pro Se Assistance Clinic

The Middle District of Florida Bankruptcy Pro Se Assistance Clinic is a nonprofit charitable organization comprised of attorney member volunteers in collaboration with the Tampa Bay Bankruptcy Bar Association.

The Clinic is staffed by experienced bankruptcy lawyers and offers free, on-site information and guidance to individuals who are representing themselves in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. The lawyer volunteers at the clinic can help the pro se individual understand the bankruptcy process and provided limited case-specific advice, but they cannot represent the individual in court or file pleadings. Because it is a volunteer program, they are not permitted to solicit clients while they are providing free consultations for the clinic; nor should they use the sessions to talk about representing you. The volunteer attorneys do not give further advice on any issues outside the clinic. The Bankruptcy Pro Se Assistance Clinic is not affiliated or related in any way to the United States Bankruptcy Court.

Every Wednesday
